Theme of the Seminar

The Gita is an invaluable resource that always gives light to the whole society. The most excellent book of human life is Bhagavat Gita. All mysterious paths of human life have been designated by the Gita. It shows us how to make the best human life in all paths of advancement. Human life and Gita are closely connected and inseparable like ice and cold, fire and heat, flower and fragrance. Action is an intimate understanding of human life. Action leads people to their original destination. Gita for all time highlights moral education. We learn more deeply about the role of Gita in each lesion of life.
